

CITY OF SAN JOSE
Commendation

WHEREAS: Nothing But Nets is a global, grassroots campaign to prevent malaria, a leading killer among children and refugees in Africa; and

WHEREAS: Through their dedicated founder Chairman Ted Turner, and with their unique partnerships with the National Basketball Association, the people of The United Methodist Church, the Union for Reform Judaism, Major League Soccer, MLS W.O.R.K.S., and Sports Illustrated, among many others, the UN Foundation's Nothing But Nets campaign has engaged hundreds of thousands of individuals in the fight against malaria; and

WHEREAS: In this past year, they have visited Indianapolis, IN; Philadelphia, PA; Atlanta, GA; Los Angeles, CA; Boston, MA, and Washington, DC working with NBA and MLS athletes, faith and business leaders, and students to inspire communities to come together to fight malaria; and

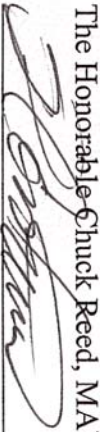

WHEREAS: During their visit to the Bay Area this week, they will conduct a Youth Soccer Clinic with the San Jose Earthquakes and work with local universities to educate students in the topic of malaria prevention,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Chuck Reed, Mayor of San Jose, together with Councilmembers Pete Constant, Sam Liccardo, Nora Campos, and Rose Herrera and our colleagues on the City Council, on this 15th of September do hereby congratulate and commend on becoming one of the most successful international health initiatives in only two years.

The Honorable Chuck Reed, MAYOR
